

WoL #12

«Here am I,
the servant of the Lord;
let it be with me
according to your word».
(Lk 1:38)

Since Mary did God's will and not her own and since she trusted totally in what God was asking of her, she was a completely fulfilled human being.

God wants us to know our true identity. He wants to reveal to us what he has planned for each one of us and so he asks us:

) Francis (

This is how we live...

"At home, at school and with my friends, I try to live the Gospel. The place I find it hardest to do that is at school. My classmates don't consider a Christian lifestyle as something important and they often find any excuse to make fun of me for my beliefs. The worst part is that I let myself be influenced by them and make some bad choices, like not accepting someone or making fun of them. I realize it's wrong to do that. Luckily I can talk over these things with other teens who are trying to live the Word of Life, too. That gives me the courage to start all over again and then I feel really happy".

"Do you want me to make you and your life a masterpiece? Then follow the way I am showing you".

Sometimes what he asks us might seem to be absurd.

We might think that it would be much better to do things in a different way. We want to take things in hand ourselves and run our life as we think best. We might even feel like giving advice to God, to tell him how things should be done or not done.

WE HAVE TO BELIEVE THAT NOTHING HAPPENS BY CHANCE.

Everything that happens to us, whether it is something happy, painful or indifferent, has a meaning. The same is true for every meeting, or every situation in the family or at school, or even our own health. There is a meaning behind everything!

Everything contributes to fulfilling the plan of God for us, which we will discover little by little, day after day, doing God's will in each present moment.

No matter what the will of God brings to us – be it happy or sad or indifferent – we can repeat the words Jesus taught us to say in the Our Father:

«Your will be done».

We can make a beautiful mosaic with our life, by living moment by moment, like placing small tiles into a colorful design. The result will be a unique mosaic, all our own, which the Lord had planned for us from all eternity.

WoL #12

«Here am I,
the servant of the Lord;
let it be with me
according to your word».

(Lk 1:38)

Since Mary did God's will and not her own and since she trusted totally in what God was asking of her, she was a completely fulfilled human being.

Sometimes what he asks us might seem to be absurd.

We might think that it would be much better to do things in a different way. We want to take things in hand ourselves and run our life as we think best. We might even feel like giving advice to God, and tell him how things should be done or not done.

WE HAVE TO BELIEVE THAT NOTHING
HAPPENS BY CHANCE.

Everything contributes to fulfilling the plan of God for us, which we will discover little by little, day after day, doing God's will in each present moment.

No matter what the will of God brings to us – be it happy or sad or indifferent – we can repeat the words Jesus taught us to say in the Our Father:
«Your will be done».

This is how we live...

“At home, at school and with my friends, I try to live the Gospel. The place I find it hardest to do that is at school. My classmates don't consider a Christian lifestyle as something important and they often find any excuse to make fun of me for my beliefs. The worst part is that I let myself be influenced by them and make some bad choices, like not accepting someone or making fun of them. I realize it's wrong to do that. Luckily I can talk over these things with other teens who are trying to live the Word of Life, too. That gives me the courage to start all over again and then I feel really happy”.

) Francis (

God wants us to know our true identity. He wants to reveal to us what he has planned for each one of us and so he asks us:

“Do you want me to make you and your life a masterpiece? Then follow the way I am showing you”.

Everything that happens to us, whether it is something happy, painful or indifferent, has a meaning. The same is true for every meeting, or every situation in the family or at school, or even our own health. There is a meaning behind everything!

We can make a beautiful mosaic with our life, by living moment by moment, like placing small tiles into a colorful design. The result will be a unique mosaic, all our own, which the Lord had planned for us from all eternity.

