Living the Gospel

Chiara Lubich | Word of Life, April 1978 Adapted by the Teens4Unity Center

A VOICE IN OUR HEART WILL TELL US WHAT WE SHOULD DO OR SAY IN EVERY SITUATION.

Is someone hungry? I'm hungry, too. Let's give them something to eat. Is someone sad? I am, too. Let's try to comfort them and share their pain. Does anyone have a problem? I want to love them and feel their difficulties as my own.

THIS IS CERTAINLY VERY DIFFERENT FROM OUR NORMAL WAY OF THINKING AND ACTING. BUT TAKE COURAGE!

«In everything, as you would want them (Mt 7:12)

you are? do to others If so, you will be happy to discover a secret that will fill your heart and give you what you desire. to do to you» It's a sentence of the Gospel that makes you stop and think.

Have you ever felt the thirst for something

Did you ever feel dissatisfied with what you do or who infinite?

THIS IS THE SECRET THAT MAKES US GROW AS A PERSON AND FIND THE HAPPINESS WE ARE LOOKING FOR.

At times it might be hard to do, and we want to go back to our old way of living, but let's go ahead, always starting over again, and the world around us will slowly begin to change.

It's a law for everyone, taught by every religion and written in the heart of every human being. It's so precious that it's called:

Let's love every person we meet during the day, whether they are nice or not, young or old, a friend or an enemy.

Let's put ourselves in their shoes and treat them as we would like to be treated.

Let's start right now with the person who is next to us in this very moment!

> One day spent like this is worth a lifetime!

We'll experience that living the Gospel gives color to our whole life and lights up the world around us.
