

5

"I am with you always, until the end of time."

(Mt 28:20)

Discover where to meet Jesus

Before going back to heaven, Jesus gathered his disciples around him and told them to continue his work. Such a task could frighten them! But Jesus reassured them saying, "I will not leave you alone. I will be with you every day!"

This certainty made them tell everyone about how they had met Jesus and what he told them and how he welcomed everyone and had mercy on all of them.

"I am with you always, until the end of time." This promise gives us so much hope! With it Jesus encourages us to go out and look for him along our path in life.

'How can we do that?'

By opening our hearts and our hands to everyone, welcoming them and sharing our life with them, both personally and as a community.

'Where can we do it?'

In our families and schools, with our friends and during sports events or at parties.

'Why should we do it?'

Because when we meet Jesus, we are surprised to find great joy in our hearts and that is a sign of his presence in us.

Where do you see Jesus near you?
Tell us what it means for you to meet with Jesus.

'Where does he hide?'

He is «nearby, right next to you, right next to me. He is hiding in the poor person, in those who are rejected by others, in little children, in those who are sick, in the person who needs advice and in those whose freedom has been taken away. He is in the person who is a victim of bullies and in those who are on the outskirts of society...»

«Every morning we should get up and think: "Today I want to discover where God wants to meet me!" In this way we will make our day a wonderful adventure!

Letizia Magri
Adattamento Centro Gen3

Let's go out to meet him in our cities:

Unite with your friends who share the same Ideal for a united world with you, then look at the map of your city and put markers where you see that you can MEET Jesus, in all those who suffer, or even in your own friends.... Share their joys and difficulties with them. Sometimes a smile is enough or a small gesture to show your love...

An experience from the USA

We all had such a beautiful and powerful experience in Detroit!!!

For 5 days a whole group of teens and adults colored the city with love. We prepared concrete activities in several «gray» areas of the city. For example, we worked at a soup kitchen for the homeless, cleaned up a public park, planted a garden of vegetables...

At the end of those days together, we felt totally transformed and full of a real and deep joy.

One of the prerequisites was that we would always practice love for one another throughout the activities. We tried to remember that this was the first and most important thing, the only thing necessary, and the most beautiful gift we could give to the people we met throughout the city.

The art of loving became the natural law for us which created a beautiful atmosphere among us and it also urged us to go out towards others to give all of ourselves to them.

