

“Jesus revealed another secret to us, like a bottomless well we can draw on.

“When two or three are united in his name, loving one another with his same love, he is in their midst (see Mt 18:20). Then we will feel free and full of light, and streams of living water will flow from within us. Jesus’ promise will be fulfilled because the thirst-quenching water that wells up for eternity, flows from Jesus himself present among us.” Chiara Lubich

EVERY ACT OF LOVE IS LIKE A DRINK OF LIVING WATER.

“To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life” (Rev 21:6).

When we put the commandment of reciprocal love into practice, and really love one another, we allow God to intervene in a very special way, as Chiara Lubich wrote:

“Every time we try to put the Gospel into practice, it is like drinking a drop of living water. Every gesture of love for our neighbor is like a sip of that water.

“Yes, that water is very special because it gushes forth from our heart every time we open up and try to love everyone around us.

“It’s a spring — God’s spring — that pours out life-giving water and its deep streams quench the thirst of others, through our big or small acts of love.

“If we keep on giving, this fountain of life and peace will keep on giving abundant water and will never dry up.”
