

“Enter as far as possible into the minds and hearts of others. Try to understand their problems, needs and troubles, as well as their joys, so that we can share everything with them [...]

“We have to become that other person, just as Jesus, who was God, became a human being out of love. Then our neighbors will feel understood and supported because someone is sharing their pain, burdens and joys.

«Live the other person, live for others. This is a great Ideal. This is amazing! [...]».

wordteens.focolare.org 4 centro.rpu@focolare.org

“Make me know your ways, O Lord; teach me your paths.” (Ps 25: 4).

If we want a sure guide on our journey, let’s remember that Jesus said, “I am the Way...” (Jn 14:6). When Chiara Lubich spoke to young people gathered in Santiago de Compostela during the 1989 World Youth Day, she encouraged them by saying:

“[...] Jesus said he is the ‘Way’, and so he is telling us that we have to take the same way he did [...]. We could say that the way of Jesus has a name, and it is LOVE. [...] The love that Jesus lived and brought on earth is special and unique. [...]

2

JOURNEY WITH OTHERS

SHARING THEIR JOYS

AND SORROWS

#WordTeensCard #03

“It is the same ardent love that burns in the heart of God. [...] But who should we love? Loving God is certainly our first duty. And then we have to love our neighbor, every neighbor [...]

“From the moment we wake up in the morning until we go to sleep at night, every relationship with our neighbor should be lived in love. Whether we are at home, at school, at work, on a sports field, on vacation, in church or on the street, we should take advantage of every opportunity to love others as we love ourselves, seeing Jesus in them, neglecting no one, being the first to love...”

3

Cut and fold and you will have a card that you can carry with you for the whole month!

“Enter as far as possible into the minds and hearts of others. Try to understand their problems, needs and troubles, as well as their joys, so that we can share everything with them [...]

“We have to become that other person, just as Jesus, who was God, became a human being out of love. Then our neighbors will feel understood and supported because someone is sharing their pain, burdens and joys.

«Live the other person, live for others. This is a great Ideal. This is amazing! [...]».

wordteens.focolare.org 4 centro.rpu@focolare.org

“[...] Jesus said he is the ‘Way’, and so he is telling us that we have to take the same way he did [...]. We could say that the way of Jesus has a name, and it is LOVE. [...] The love that Jesus lived and brought on earth is special and unique. [...]

“From the moment we wake up in the morning until we go to sleep at night, every relationship with our neighbor should be lived in love. Whether we are at home, at school, at work, on a sports field, on vacation, in church or on the street, we should take advantage of every opportunity to love others as we love ourselves, seeing Jesus in them, neglecting no one, being the first to love...”

“It is the same ardent love that burns in the heart of God. [...] But who should we love? Loving God is certainly our first duty. And then we have to love our neighbor, every neighbor [...]

JOURNEY WITH OTHERS

SHARING THEIR JOYS

AND SORROWS

#WordTeensCard #03

“Make me know your ways, O Lord; teach me your paths.” (Ps 25: 4).

If we want a sure guide on our journey, let’s remember that Jesus said, “I am the Way...” (Jn 14:6). When Chiara Lubich spoke to young people gathered in Santiago de Compostela during the 1989 World Youth Day, she encouraged them by saying:

“[...] Jesus said he is the ‘Way’, and so he is telling us that we have to take the same way he did [...]. We could say that the way of Jesus has a name, and it is LOVE. [...] The love that Jesus lived and brought on earth is special and unique. [...]

2