

True power is found in the Word of God.

When we think about power, we usually associate it with nations or people who oppress others and cause conflicts among individuals and whole countries.

Instead, the Word of God shows us that real power lies in love. We can see the greatest example of this in Jesus.

Love for everyone on earth

Jesus experienced life on earth as a human being, all the way to his death, so that he could open up a way for us to be free and to encounter his Father.

Thanks to him, God's powerful love was revealed to all of humanity.

Champions in dialogue

so as to be builders of PEACE.

If we look at ourselves, we have to sincerely admit that we have limitations.

But that's where we can really experience God's love for us.

In fact, he wants all people on earth to be happy. They are all his children and so he is always ready to offer his powerful help to anyone who humbly places their life in his hands. By doing so, we will be working for the common good and help bring about peace and brotherhood among all.

This is how we can dialogue with others:

Put yourself on the same level as your partner in dialogue, no matter who that might be;

Then listen to that person, being completely empty of ourselves...

This enables us to receive that person within ourselves and to understand them...

Since you have listened to them out of love, they will be ready to listen to what you have to say". (Chiara Lubich)

During this month, let's take advantage of all the people we meet every day and try to establish or renew a friendship with individuals or groups who belong to another Christian Church other than our own.
