

iBrother

LET'S LOVE IN ACTION
AND NOT ONLY IN WORDS, BEGINNING WITH HUMBLE SERVICE TO THOSE AROUND US,
WHATEVER THEY ASK OF US EACH AND EVERY DAY.

JESUS WANTS US
TO LOVE HIM IN EVERY
NEIGHBOR THAT WE MEET.

HE WANTS US TO LOVE
EACH NEIGHBOR
AS OURSELVES.

From a commentary by Chiara Lubich – Adapted by the Gen 3 Center

(1 Jn. 3:18)

9

2013

«LET US LOVE, NOT
IN WORD OR SPEECH,
BUT IN TRUTH AND ACTION.»

Jesus didn't love us merely by giving wonderful talks. Rather, he was in our midst doing good, healing everyone who asked, being fully available to those who needed him, beginning with the weakest and poorest people, with those who are rejected by others. He even gave up his life for us.

Do you remember any such episodes in the life of Jesus?

Find in the Gospel some stories that show us how Jesus loved everyone.

“I wouldn’t give up!”

By: John – Canada
Illustrated by: Tochi, Atlanta, GA - USA

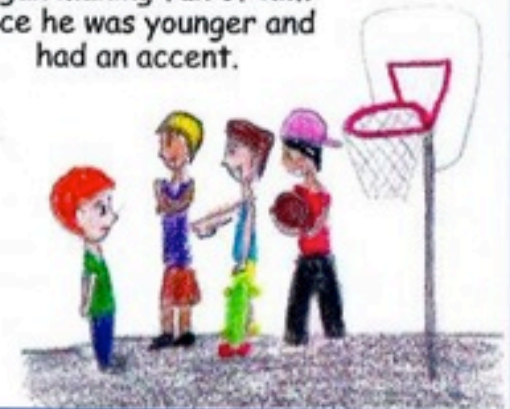

My friends and I usually spend our afternoons playing outside, riding our long boards, shooting some hoops.

One day a new kid moved into the neighborhood. His name is Jack. He is a few years younger than we are, and his family is from Scotland.

He came up and started talking to us. My friends began making fun of him since he was younger and had an accent.

Jack felt he wasn't welcome and stopped coming outside, even when I asked. I tried to be patient and give him some space.

I told my friends that we should apologize to Jack and invite him to play. They noticed that what I was asking was right.

We asked Jack to come and play with us. He finally did, and it was a lot of fun. We even had a bonfire and played video games.

And you? How would you have reacted?

You too can share your experience!
Send it to: genmag.usa@gmail.com