

12

We live the Gospel

In every period of human history and in every place all over the world, people are familiar with pain, doubt, fear, loneliness and circumstances that threaten to destroy their dreams. This is confirmed by the ancient prayer from the Book of Psalms that is the Word of Life this month.

“The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?”

(Ps 27:1)

Word of Life

Teens who live the Gospel

“The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?”

This is a good time to revive our faith in the love of God, who is our Father and wants his children to be happy.

He is ready to take on the burden of all that worries us so that we do not turn in on ourselves but rather are truly free. Then we can share with others our light and our hope.

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?”

«This Word of Life is an invitation to renew our faith in God.
God exists and he loves me.

>> When I meet someone?
I have to believe that God has something to tell me through that person.

>> Does something cause me pain?
I believe that God loves me.

>> Does something make me happy?
God loves me.

He is here with me, always with me. He knows everything about me and shares my every thought, every joy, every desire. He takes on everything that worries me. He is there with me when I have difficult moments in life.

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?”

How can I revive this conviction? By finding him in our midst.

He promised that he would be present wherever two or more are united in his name.

Therefore, let's live mutual love, as taught in the Gospel, with all those who live the Word of Life. Let's share with them our experiences and we will experience the fruits of his presence, which are....

Chiara Lubich, Word of Life, July 2006

wordteens.focolare.org